SPM DISTRIBUTOR CONTRACT

I, the undersigned distributor of SPM, hereby agree to abide by the following terms and conditions of this contract:

1. The exclusive dealers and distributors of SPM have no employer-employee relationship with the Company. But they are bound by the Company rules on ethics and other policies. They may not act as dealers, sales agents or distributors of any other business entity that is a direct competitor of SPM.
2. SPM dealers/distributors are authorized to sell Spectrum products at prices set by the Company. They may not sell them at prices below or disproportionately above the Company-set limits.
3. Dealers and distributors are not allowed to recruit as distributor any member of the immediate family of anyone who is already enlisted as Dealer or Distributor of SPM.
4. Any individual may enlist as SPM Distributor under any authorized sponsor provided, however, that he/she is not below EIGHTEEN years old at the time of enlistment and not mentally incapacitated.
5. Anyone who is currently a dealer or distributor of another multilevel company may enlist as SPM dealer or distributor provided that he/she may no longer recruit any dealer/distributor for the other MLM company. He/she is also prohibited from recruiting any SPM dealer/distributor to become a dealer/distributor of any other MLM company.
6. A dealer/distributor may transfer his/her distributorship to any individual person only with the prior permission of the Company.
7. The Company reserves the right to transfer to the distributor's legal heir his/her distributorship and its accrued benefits if the distributor dies or becomes incapacitated.
8. Any SPM dealer/distributor proven violating any of the aforementioned rules shall be subjected to disciplinary action, including but not limited to outright termination of his/her dealership/distributorship.
9. If in the best judgment of the Company a dealer/distributor is guilty of any serious act against SPM or against any other SPM dealer/distributor, his/her distributorship may be terminated, and if necessary, other legal action may be taken against him for damages.
10. The company has the right to ammend the rules, policies of the business plan where the company deemed it necessary for the benefit of both parties.
